

Richard A. Williams

Retired

Email: rwilliams@mwlaw.com

Phone: (501) 688.8802

Fax: (501) 688.8807

Education

University of Texas
LL.B. - (1958)

University of Texas
B.A., Journalism - (1955)

Bar Admissions

Arkansas
Texas

Richard Williams is an Of Counsel member of the Business Practice Group. He has represented sellers of large corporations in several of the largest actions of their type ever to occur in Arkansas. Richard is among a select group of attorneys to have lectured at the N.Y.U. Federal Tax Institute, the most prestigious tax program in America. He has also lectured in Georgia, Florida, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico and Texas and written articles for all of the major national tax journals.

Experience

- Representation of professional corporations with respect to tax planning.
- Representation of various real estate developers.
- Preparation of complex estate plans involving corporate and partnership recapitalizations and multiple trusts.
- Served as editor of Legal Economics, magazine published by the Section of Economics of Law Practice of the American Bar Association.

Involvement

- Arkansas Bar Association
- Fellow, Arkansas Bar Foundation Board
- V.O.C.A.L.S.
- Fellow, American College of Trust and Estate Counsel
- Former President, Central Arkansas Estate Council
- Former Chairman, St. Vincent Development Foundation Board
- Former Chairman, Easter Seals Society
- Former Board Member, Museum of Discovery

- Temple B'Nai Israel