“This year’s SCORE Awards are a true celebration of the American entrepreneurial spirit,” said Resa Kierstein, Vice President of Development for SCORE. “Our winners come from diverse backgrounds, industries, and regions, but each embodies the courage, perseverance, and vision necessary to create successful small businesses. Special thanks, as well to our SCORE Awards sponsors, who strengthen our efforts to educate, support and advocate for the millions of entrepreneurs pursuing the American dream.”

Stat-Medicament-Disposal Corporation completed contracts for bottle assembly with not one but two Special Needs Organizations, Abilities Unlimited of Magnolia Arkansas and Star Industries of Russellville Arkansas, and made presentations to community organizations such as Kiwanis-Rotary-Lions in three States and numerous cities collecting thousands of sign up cards to bring the product to their city to protect the drinking water for their children and grandchildren.

“We are so proud to be recognized for our hard work as a small business. Out of the hundreds of SCORE clients, our accomplishments made us stand out. Thank you to SCORE and our SCORE mentor Gregg Gimlin and a fantastic Board of Directors, without whose guidance and input would have been impossible says Larry Kenemore Jr. CEO”

“We are proud to recognize these outstanding small business owners, and to celebrate the role their SCORE mentors have played in their success,” said SCORE CEO Ken Yancey. “Since 1964, SCORE has helped more than 10 million entrepreneurs to start or grow their business. By sharing just a few of these powerful stories, we hope to inspire others to pursue their own entrepreneurial dreams, and to take full advantage of the resources that SCORE provides.”
