

Steven H. Cox

Associate

Email: scox@mwlaw.com

Phone: (501) 688.8820

As a former senior analyst in a state department of treasury, Steven Cox has real-world knowledge and experience on the tax issues facing businesses today. As a legal advisor, he counsels businesses and entrepreneurs on tax matters, business entity formations, business transactions and contract matters. He also assists individuals with estate planning, trusts and tax efficient charitable giving.

Practice Areas

Tax Law
Wealth Planning, Trusts and Estates
Business and Corporate Law

Education

Georgetown University Law Center
LL.M., Taxation, with distinction - (2024)

University of Arkansas at Little Rock
William H. Bowen School of Law,
J.D., summa cum laude - (2023)

Wayne State University Mike Ilitch School
of Business
M.B.A. - (2011)

Wayne State University Mike Ilitch School
of Business
B.A. in Business Administration, magna cum laude - (2010)

Bar Admissions

Arkansas

Experience

- Counsels corporate and individual clients on business entity formations and tax and transactional matters.
- Advises high net worth individuals on complex tax and transactional issues.
- Assists clients in navigating the world of estate planning and developing comprehensive strategies that achieve individual and family goals in the most tax efficient manner.

Professional Recognition

- Recipient, State of Michigan Service Coin

Involvement

- Arkansas Bar Association