The Arkansas Native Plant Society announced it will host a webinar titled:

Glades of Arkansas (“Webinar”)

The free Webinar will be held on Saturday, June 5th at 10:00 a.m.

The Webinar will address various aspects of glades including:

- What are glades?
- Different types of Arkansas glades
- Where Arkansas glades occur
- Type of glade plant species

The scheduled speaker is Brent Baker who is a botanist with the Arkansas Natural Heritage Commission.

Mr. Baker is stated to have worked for nearly 12 years to monitor and discover new populations of rare plants in the state. He also conducts botanical inventories of Arkansas’s System of Natural Areas and other ecologically significant lands.
