The Arkansas Environmental Federation (“AEF”) will be holding its Annual Sustainability Summit (“Summit”) in March 2025.

AEF holds the Annual Summit in partnership with the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce.

AEF is inviting submissions of White Papers.

The stated objective of the Summit is to:

...engage environmental engineers, local business leaders, and sustainability professionals in a collaborative environment where they can explore, discuss, and implement sustainable practices within their organizations.

The 2025 Event focus is stated to include:

- Sustainable Business Practices.
- Sustainability Storytelling.
- Regulatory Updates.
- Case Studies.

Further, topics of interest are stated to include (but are not limited to):

- Sustainable Technology and Innovation.
- Case Studies.
- Regulatory Compliance.
- Sustainability Reporting.
- Circular Economy Models.
- Energy Efficiency.
- Water and Waste Management.
- Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR).

AEF states that the call for White Papers is open to:

- Environmental Engineers.
- Sustainability Officers.
- Business Leaders.
- Researchers.
- Policy Experts.

A particular focus is case studies that help businesses in Arkansas adopt and enhance sustainable practices.
