The Arkansas Water Resources Center (“AWRC”) announced the dates for the Arkansas Agriculture, Forests, and Water Conference that will be held on July 22 through July 24 (“Conference”).

The Conference will be held at the Don Tyson Center for Agricultural Sciences in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

AWRC and its partners are accepting proposals for presentations and organized sessions.

AWRC states that the Conference:

...provides a platform for people to share ideas, current research and collaborative opportunities in agriculture, forestry, and water resources.

Presenters at the Conference are provided the opportunity to choose an oral presentation only, poster presentation only, or no preference.

The session is stated to provide each speaker 15 to 20 minutes and not last over 1.5 hours. The call for presentations and session is open to all, whether one is a seasoned professional or a newcomer to the industry.

Deadline for proposals is Friday, March 7. The Committee will announce the selected participants and sessions in late March 2025.
