

KEEP CALM AND PRESERVE
ON

Preservation Conversation: Historic Rehabilitation Tax Credits by Toni Johnson

Toni started her career as an interior designer and then through the admiration of old buildings, found her way into historic preservation and material culture. She holds a MA in Historic Preservation from Savannah College of Art and Design in Savannah, GA and a MS and PhD in Heritage Studies from Arkansas State University in Jonesboro. She works as an interior designer and independent consultant to those interested in creating new interiors with architectural character or furnishing, researching, or preserving historic structures and neighborhoods for her firm, Johnson Consulting, LLC and is a co-

Join the QQA as we talk tax credits for rehabilitation of historic properties.

Event Info:

When: December 10, 2020 at 6:00 pm.

Where: Online event via Zoom and YouTube Live.

RSVP: Please RSVP by November 10 before 4:00 pm, so we can send you a Zoom link. Or, if you prefer, you can watch the event on YouTube Live.

founder of the organization Save Hillcrest!
formed to preserve, educate and bring awareness to the threats again the historic Hillcrest neighborhood in Little Rock.

Questions? Call 501-371-0075
ext. 3 or email
qqa@quapaw.com

RSVP for the December 10 Virtual Preservation Conversations

Note: If you do not have a Zoom account, you will need to create one in order to RSVP via this Link. If you prefer not to create a Zoom account, please join us on YouTube Live.

Sponsored by the Quapaw Nation

Did you know? You can also watch most of our Preservation Conversations on our Youtube channel! Click here to see our channel.

QQA | Quapaw.com

